

Hello th

We're Dan and Quentin from Elderwood Academy. One of the loving people around you gifted you one of our Dungeon Journals. While your Dungeon Journal was ordered well before the holidays, it is getting hand-built to order, and it takes us some time to put the proper amount of love and care into our craft. Rest assured that your gift will be finished shortly after we get back from our holiday break, but we will have to ask for your patience for the moment. Please reach out to us (info@elderwoodacademy.com) if you have any questions, and thanks so much for being part of the family!

Happy Holidays,
